

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: August 4, 2025

1. Introduction

We respect your privacy and handle your data with care. This policy explains what we collect, how we use it, and your rights.

2. Information We Collect

- Personal Details: name, date of birth, address, email, phone, company, occupation, school (if relevant), and event registration.
- Demographics: age range, gender, location, and other survey responses.
- Usage Data: website activity, cookies, and analytics.

We collect this information through site forms, newsletter sign-ups, event RSVPs, surveys, and cookies.

3. How We Use Your Information

We use your data to:

- Send updates, newsletters, and event invitations.
- Organize and run events smoothly.
- Analyze website traffic and improve your experience.
- Communicate directly when you reach out.
- Generate internal reports to guide our work.

4. How We Share Information

- We do not share personal data with third-party partners or service providers, except as noted below.
- We share aggregated, anonymized analytics with Google.
- We share transaction details with payment processors to complete purchases.
- We may publish user-generated stories, videos, images, and testimonials on our site and social channels unless you ask us not to.

5. Data Retention

We keep your personal information for one year. After that, we delete or anonymize it, unless you request we keep it longer.

6. Security

We use industry-standard encryption on Wix's secure platform to protect your data. Wix's privacy and security measures are detailed in their policy.

7. Your Rights

You can always:

- Update or correct your information.
- Delete your data from our systems.
- Opt out of any communications.
- Request a copy of your personal information.
